

The Mysterious Bookshop

The world's finest mystery specialty store, offering the best in crime, mystery, suspense, espionage, thriller and detective fiction

Mysterious Bookshop Publications

For the past five years, The Mysterious Bookshop has been publishing books and pamphlets in modest quantities for mystery aficionados and collectors. Many have sold out (and now fetch premium prices), some are available in very limited quantities, and a few are still available in quantity.

This is a complete list of all books published by The Mysterious Bookshop.

Mysterious Profiles

Many of the most distinguished and popular authors of the day were asked to write 5,000-word biographies, or profiles, of their most famous detectives. They were produced for The Mysterious Bookshop in several formats:

1,000 paperbound copies.

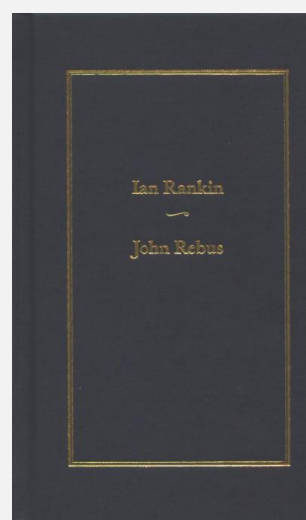

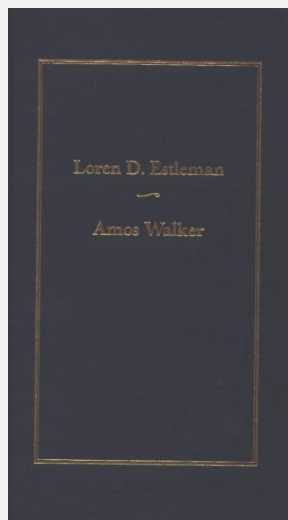

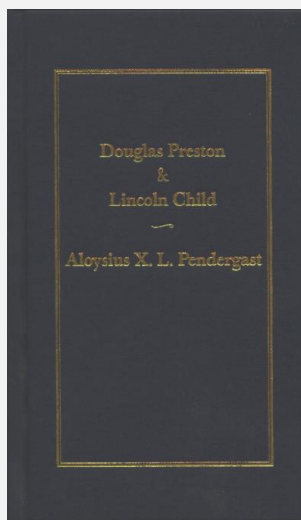

100 hardcover copies, numbered and signed.

26 hardcover copies, lettered and signed.

5-10 hardcover out-of-series copies, signed (the printer's over-run).

The bookshop published 25 profiles, the first 21 of which were collected in The Lineup, which won the Edgar Allan Poe Award as the best book of the year in the Biographical/Critical Category.

Some editions of some titles have sold out, but we still have most titles in various formats. Listed below is our full inventory of Mysterious Profiles in alphabetical order. Please note: A paperback edition will be provided free of charge with every hardcover.

Michael Connelly: Special Limited Edition

Michael Connelly's limited edition profile of Hieronymus (Harry) Bosch sold out within the first week. He later wrote an original profile of Mickey Haller, his Lincoln lawyer. We published this in a handsome hardcover edition together with the Bosch profile, produced dos-a-dos (read one profile, then flip the book upside down to read the other one). We still have some copies, limited to 350 numbered and signed copies. Every copy will be accompanied by a paperback edition at no extra charge.

Bibliomysteries

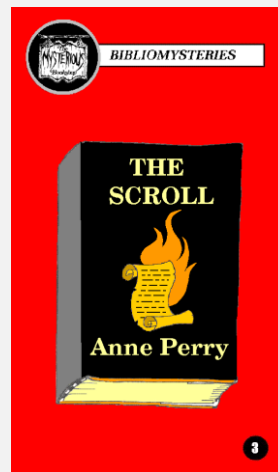

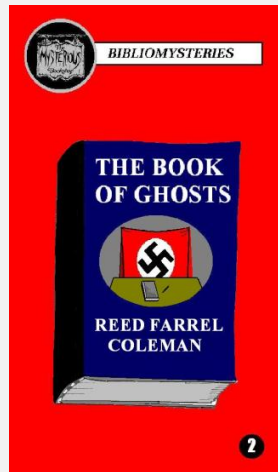

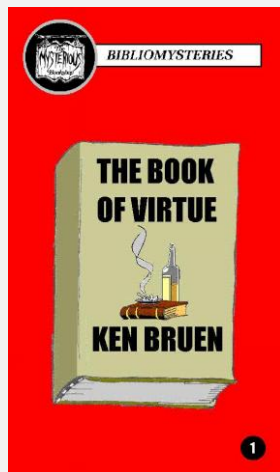

For many bibliophiles, especially aficionados of mystery fiction, some of the most beloved books and stories feature a background of bookstores, libraries, rare books, manuscripts, priceless volumes and eccentric book collectors.

We are publishing a new bibliomystery every month. Each story features books and/or those who write them, buy them, read them, collect them, sell them or are in some way involved with them.

Each story has been commissioned by the bookshop as an original mystery story and will not be available in any other store or in any other form until sometime after our publication.

Among the authors who have written stories for us are Ken Bruen, Anne Perry, Reed Farrel Coleman, C.J. Box, Nelson DeMille, and William Link (a Columbo story).

Each story is available as a limited edition hardcover volume in an illustrated dust jacket. The hardcover editions are limited to only 100 copies, numbered and signed by the author; additionally there are 26 lettered copies, also signed by the author.

The Only Hardcover Editions

Block, Lawrence, Afterthoughts. Originally planned as an e-book original, Afterthoughts contains the author's reflections on a career that spans more than fifty years. These more than forty-five essays talk about his work, including the semi-autobiographical series featuring Matthew Scudder. All copies have been signed by the author. $35.00.

Westlake, Donald, Memory. Discovered after the much-loved author's death, Memory is the first novel he wrote but it remained unpublished until after his death on January 1, 2009. The Mysterious Bookshop then produced a first edition printing of 200 copies. It is a full-cloth hardcover edition without dust jacket. $29.95
